Admission Policy:

The mission of Redding School of the Arts, where education and the arts connect, is to educate K-8 students who have an interest in visual and performing arts and cultivate their knowledge and skills for the betterment of their local and global community. The School is open to any student in the State of California who meets the admissions requirements described herein. In the event that the number of pupils who wish to attend the School exceeds the school’s capacity, attendance (except for existing pupils of the charter school grades kindergarten through sixth) shall be determined by a public random drawing, the process for which is described below.

- Students will be considered for admission without regards to race or ethnicity, national origin, gender, religion, disability, sexual orientation or achievement level.
- Preference will be given to siblings of currently enrolled students and to children of staff who have an interest in the visual and performing arts.
- All students admitted to the classroom must have been fully immunized and present the appropriate health examination record in accordance with the California Health and Safety Code.
- All students must meet minimum age requirements as applicable under California law and with grade level placement in accordance with RSA board policy.
- Student may not concurrently attend a private school that charges the student’s family for tuition.
- If enrolled in an independent study program, a student shall be documented as a resident of the county in which the charter school reports its apportionment claims or an adjacent county.
- Student must not be expelled or suspended from their current district.
- Student must agree to follow attendance and behavioral standards outlined in the Family Handbook.
- Students eligible for 6th-8th grade classroom placement must complete an interview prior to enrollment.

Attendance at Redding School of the Arts is a choice. Class attendance and promptness is required. If my child does not meet the admission requirements and parameters I understand that my child will be required to return to their district of residence. I also understand that if information on this application is false or is misrepresented and is discovered after admittance to Redding School of the Arts, my child will be dismissed immediately and returned to their district of residence.
